Editor's Column

This week's meeting of the Sunset Commission revealed that existing Sunset School buildings may be safely operated, as is, for a municipal cultural and community center for a period of possibly several years if certain rehabilitation work is done on the auditorium.

However, many cultural uses cannot be housed at Sunset because accommodations for a fire-proof art gallery, for example, are not possible in the present structures. Neither can dramatic or dance productions requiring special lighting be given in the auditorium. Musical events such as have been given at Sunset in past years can still be presented in the 700-seat auditorium.

A proposal for converting the north playfield into a parking facility to supply revenue for improving existing Sunset facilities has not met with the unanimous support of the Sunset Commission responsible for planning present and future development of the cultural and community center for the city. Let us go back a year!

In March, 1964, Stone and Youngberg, municipal financing consultants employed by the city, stated, in a feasibility report on the purchase of Sunset School by the city for a cultural and community center, that it was the intention of the city ultimately to lease the Sunset property to a non-profit corporation which would construct the cultural center with parking facilities, a 1,500-seat auditorium, art gallery and lecture hall.

In April, 1964, on the basis of this feasibility report, a $575,000 bond election was overwhelming supported by Carmel voters.

In June, 1964, the city published an official statement offering the approved bonds for sale. This statement said it was the city's intention to subsequently build a creative arts center on the site and that this center would be financed by a non-profit corporation.

So it appears that, a year ago, the city's financial advisors, the city, voters and the buyers of the bonds all had in mind the same picture—a cultural and community center with a parking facility developed by a non-profit corporation. (Continued on Page Fifteen)

Ten Carmel Girl Scout Troops participated in this event. Junior Troop 2133 presented the Promise and Laws and Junior Troop 2118 gave "Bridges, Badges and a Folk Dance." Cadette Troop 2158 sang several songs accompanied by the guitar. Brownies from Troop 2084 sang the Brownie Smile Song while Brownies from Troop 2008 did a folk dance to the same song. Brownie Troop 2080 presented a skit on Brownie "B's", and Brownie Troop 2121 sang songs led by Cadette Lesa Smith. Junior Troop 2009 demonstrated the Compass Game.

Junior Troop 2063 sang an original song, Carmel-By-The-Sea, written and accompanied by Mrs. Paul Banker and led by Mrs. C. E. Welchner. Mrs. Welchner then led the entire group in a short community sing.

Mrs. Harold Aldrich, neighborhood chairman, introduced Mrs. Phillip Pedro, field advisor, and Mrs. Harry Harris, district chairman, the members of the Carmel service team and the troop leaders. Taps was sung and refreshments were served to all on the stage of the Forest Theater.

Council Appoints New City Attorney

The city council appointed an assistant city attorney Tuesday night. The new appointee, William Burleigh, 30, will become city attorney on August 1 when the resignation of the present city attorney, John Morse, becomes effective.

Since January 1, 1964, Mr. Burleigh has been associated with the Carmel law firm of Thomas K. Perry. He graduated from Boalt Hall, University of California at Berkeley law school, in (Continued on Page Eighteen)

Arts, Inc. Plans Told To Sunset Commissioners

Sunset commissioners held their second meeting Monday evening and elected a permanent chairman, Peter R. Dyer, and vice chairman, Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN Ret.), then considered means for financing the estimated $22,723 cost of operating Sunset School as a municipal cultural and community center in 1965-66 including rental rates, a public parking lot and use of hostelry tax revenue.

They learned that fire safety requirements will allow limited use of the facility and that the auditorium needs considerable rehabilitation.

Commissioners also heard a verbal presentation of Arts, Inc. plans to establish a $2-$3 million cultural center on the Peninsula, possibly at Sunset School if the city hall and municipal administrative offices are not moved to the school site.

"Carmel is the place for a cultural center for the whole Peninsula," Malcolm Millard, one of the seven members of the non-profit Arts, Inc. group told commissioners.

A report of the finance committee, consisting of Commissioners Dr. James Gilman, chairman, Ted Fehring and Peter Dyer, stated that the best possible estimate of the 1965-66 cost of operating and maintaining the Sunset property, without major repairs or remodeling, will be $22,723.11.

To offset this cost, there is, at present, no commitment from any organization or group wishing to use the Sunset facilities which would provide appreciable city revenue but one-quarter of the hostelry tax collected by the city (Continued on Page Eighteen)

Valley Airstrip Hazards Concern School Trustees

Hazards from planes using the unattended private airstrip in Carmel Valley near Tularcitos School received considerable review by the Carmel Unified School District trustees last night and John Sigourney, president of the Tularcitos School Parents Club, successfully urged the board to explore means of eliminating possible danger to schoolchildren.

Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield presented to the board copies of two letters. Both contained information on the present status of the airstrip, owned by Peter Delfino, as requested by the board.

The first, from Clyde P. Barnett, director of the California Aeronautics Division of the Department of Public Works, stated that the airstrip is legal and until such time as a physical change to the airstrip takes place, or there is a new owner, the aeronautics division cannot require that it be brought up to present standards. In addition, the public is free to use it as it now exists.

However, Mr. Barnett offered to come to Carmel and discuss problems presented by the airstrip with the board.

The second letter, from Kent G. Davis, supervising inspector for the western region of the Federal Aviation Agency stated,

"Since the airport is not fully enclosed by a fence I have written to Del Monte Aviation and Monarch Aviation, both operating out of Monterey Peninsula Airport to ask their pilots to exercise extreme caution on takeoffs and landings to make certain the runway is clear. I have also asked (Continued on Page Eighteen)

Jim Burgess Will Retire On Monday

During 40 years as an AAA, or California State Automobile Association, representative, dependable Jim Burgess has pushed, towed or repaired more cars in our community than he cares to remember. On Monday, he will turn his back on his agency and Richfield Oil station to enjoy a well-earned retirement and devote much of his time to his hobby of gardening.

Mr. Burgess came to the Peninsula in 1923 from the Shetland Islands, where he was born. After three years with the Monterey Garage, he moved over the hill to Carmel to work for the late Louis Levinson in his Carmel Garage, and with his wife, Edna, has made his home here ever since. He established his own business and became Carmel's AAA representative in 1939.

Historical Pageant And International Revue Are Armed Forces Day Events

Carmelites, on Saturday, are invited to be the guests of Fort Ord, the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School and the Defense Language Institute where programs of unusual interest will be presented as events of Armed Forces Day.

Members of the armed forces and the faculties of the NPGS and DLI form an important segment of the life of this community. As their guests this Saturday, Carmel residents, who accept the invitation so courteously extended, will gain an appreciation of the training programs of local military installations as well as this country's Army and Navy. Events are planned to interest children as well as adults.

FORT ORD PAGEANT

Fort Ord will present a pageant, starting at 9:30 a.m. It will depict the U.S. Army from revolutionary times to the present. Eight 13-man units, each dressed in the uniforms of the period it represents, will recreate the U.S. Army in the War of Independence, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Civil War, the Indian Wars, World Wars I and II, and the Korean War. The units will present the drills of each period against a colorful background of the flags of the 50 states and the Army and National colors of today and 1880. A color-bearer with each of the historical units will carry the American Flag in use during the era his unit represents.

While each unit is marching to its place on the parade grounds, a narrator will describe the Army and the Nation during the period the unit represents and the Fort Ord band will play tunes of the period.

After the historical units have been presented, company-size units of the First, Third and Fourth Brigades, will march past the reviewing stand to demonstrate Fort Ord's training mission and today's Army. Following them will be companies of the 41st Infantry Brigade, the 9th Cavalry and the 78th Field Artillery representing the Army's combat arms. Next will be a company of special troops demonstrating the support branch of the Army. A fly-over by Army aircraft and a mass jump by Fort Ord skydivers will close the parade.

Among other events at Fort Ord will be a firepower demonstration beginning with M14 rifles, then progressing through other weapons (Continued on Page Fifteen)

Nancy Cronburg, above, is one of California's leading sopranos. She will be featured soloist in the Verdi "Requiem" to be performed by the Monterey County Symphony on Tuesday at Sunset School auditorium. The 8:30 p.m. program will also feature the Monterey Peninsula College Community Chorus with soloists Claudia White, Robert Glover and Marvin Klebe. Ticket information may be obtained at symphony headquarters, 624-4125.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor

I have enjoyed very much buying the paper from the little boys and girls near the post office and turning immediately to your column concerning art in and around Carmel.

As a relatively new member (two years) of the Carmel Art Association and a three-year member of this wonderful Peninsula community I want to thank you for your paper and its attention to the community and the arts.

Most sincerely yours,
Traylor Dunwoody

Monterey County Planning Commission
Gentlemen:

At the executive committee meeting of the Carmel Business Association on May 6, the motion was made and unanimously passed that this association express to you its opposition to the proposed Humble Oil Co. refinery at Moss Landing.

We would like to see the Monterey County Planning Commission deny a permit for this and for similar industrial projects which we feel would be detrimental both to the established tourist trade and to the welfare of permanent residents.

Sincerely,
Carmel Business Association
Carl Bosholm, President

Dear Editor,

We spent a week in Carmel in sort of a goodbye-for-a-while to our favorite spot on earth and bought a copy of the Pine Cone.

Over 100 Men Apply For Fire Chief Job

Results of advertisements placed by the city in Western City magazine and two fire service publications are applications for the job of Carmel fire chief from over 100 men, including one from Alaska, City Clerk Hugh Bayless told the city council Tuesday night.

These applications are now being processed and procedure set up for testing the applicants by a written examination in the areas where they reside. Fire chiefs of Peninsula cities are helping Carmel to set up the examination.

After the written tests have been screened, applicants who place in the upper bracket will be invited to come to Carmel for interviews.

Mr. Bayless indicated that the middle of June is the earliest date that appointment of a new fire chief may be considered.

The fire chief vacancy is now being filled by the former assistant fire chief, James R. Belvail.

Thank you so much! You are good to us!

Dear Editor,

I am a medical writer with a strong interest in the common cold. Probably no other ailment has as many "cures," and right now I am making a collection for a book. Your readers may have some interesting treatments that have been handed down and which they will be willing to share with me.

They may be sent to Wayne Pennington, Suite 1300, 640 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10019.

There is no doubt that your village is becoming as well known for its cultural activities as it is for its intense beauty. A large percentage of the population seems to have a strong interest in music, painting, sculpture and theatre. By the very nature of the attractions of Carmel, it would appear that a large portion of the tourists would have similar interests. In addition, the articles in the Pine Cone relating to the activities of the Sunset Commission and the newly formed Arts Inc. would seem to indicate strong civic interest in the promotion of the performing arts.

Yours truly,
Howard Adelman

My thanks to you for the rewarding review of "Chalk Garden." It is pleasant to know that audiences thus far have enjoyed this unusually fine play.

FESTIVAL OF THE GRAPE

An event to support the swimming pool at Carmel Valley Community Center, the Festival of the Grape, will take place at the Rancho Del Monte Country Club on Sunday from 2-5 p.m.

A feature of the event will be a synchronized swimming exhibition by the Cypress Swim Club which practices in the Valley's community pool.

Two of the swim club's members, Marilyn and Marsha Lane, last weekend placed second in the junior national indoor synchronized duet swimming championships held in Arizona. They will repeat their award-winning number, "Dream of Conquest," Sunday afternoon.

A variety of gourmet wines will be offered for tasting at the Festival of the Grape and refreshments will be served. Tickets are $1.50.

Wiring Burns Out At Sunset School

"A shocker" was the term used by Mayor Herbert Blanks Tuesday night when he informed other councilmen that the cost of replacing electrical wiring which had burned through the day before at Sunset School would be $1,200.

However, City Clerk Hugh Bayless brightened the picture considerably when he said the Carmel Unified School District had offered to pay half the bill.

The council authorized payment of their half of the cost from proceeds of rental of Sunset to the school district. Since January 1, the city has owned the school. At the time of the sale, the school district paid $12,000 to the city for six months rent at the rate of $2,000 per month.

Polly Gann To Marry

Mrs. Eleanor M. Gann of Pebble Beach has announced the engagement of her daughter, Polly W. Gann, and Samuel Fry of Washington, D.C.

Polly, a graduate of Carmel High School, attended Pomona College and graduated from the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University. She is working in the division of protocol under Mrs. Estes Kefauver in the Department of State, Washington, D.C.

Her father is Ernest Gann of Sausalito. Steven, her twin brother, is doing graduate work at San Francisco State College, and her older brother, George, lives in Belvedere. Her grandparents are Mrs. Edward A. Michaud and the late Mr. Michaud of St. Paul, Minnesota, and the late Mr. and Mrs. George K. Gann of Pebble Beach.

Polly's fiancé is the son of Mrs. Katharine Z. Fry of Buffalo, New York, and Samuel Edwin Fry of New York. He graduated from Dartmouth College where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa and did post graduate work at the University of Edinburgh and the University of Massachusetts. He is a foreign service officer assigned to the Office of Soviet Union Affairs in the Department of State and is soon to be reassigned to become the second secretary of the U.S. Embassy in Moscow where the newlyweds will make their home after they are married.

A July 24 wedding is planned in the Bethlehem Chapel of the National Cathedral, Washington, D.C., with a reception to follow at the Sulgrave Club.

Polly's mother and brothers plan to travel to Washington for the nuptials.

Television Taping

Dr. Eric Berne of Carmel, in Chicago on Saturday, spent six hours being taped for a television discussion program which, in addition to Dr. Berne, who is the author of "Games People Play," featured Judy Garland, Jan Peerce and Jean Pierre Aumont and his wife, Marie Saint-Pavay.

The day before, in New York, Dr. Berne declined an invitation to talk about his book on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show.

Mother's Day Reunion

Mrs. Richard White's three sons managed to return to Carmel for a reunion with their mother on her special day. Visiting Mrs. White last weekend were Phillip, now a resident of Marina del Rey; Anthony and his wife, Suzanne, who live in Lemoore where Tony is serving with the U.S. Naval Reserve at the Naval Air Station; and Richard Jr., who, with his wife, Ellie and their three little girls, now makes his home in Mill Valley.

A Sister For Robbie

Miss Robbie Glen's eighth birthday was celebrated just one day before the birth of her new sister, Brigitte Fiona, who arrived at Community Hospital on May 3. The young ladies are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Glen and the nieces of Mrs. E. L. Lundblad of Carmel. They are the granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glen and of Mrs. M. Larains, all of Carmel.

"Square" Sailors

Weather permitting, the 47-foot brigantine Gloria Maris, under skipper Alan H. (Pat) Patterson of Carmel, will set sail tomorrow from the Monterey Marina for San Francisco, where she will enter the Master Mariners' Regatta on May 22 as the Peninsula port's official entry. Last held in 1891, the regatta is a revival of an annual race between coastal schooners and working ships of San Francisco Bay.

Practice in setting the square sails and handling the myriad lines of the ship has been hampered by high seas and rough weather. However, the eager crew recruits are experienced sailors, right down to bugler Bill Clapper and cannoneer Don Hays (and there is a cannon!). Other Carmelites on the racing venture, who will be garbed in salty 19th century style, are Tom Perry, Jim Womble, Herb Vial, Harvey Kilpatrick and Pete Stuber.

A problem still to be solved is what to do with the flag of their sponsoring steamship line, Pacific Micronesian Lines, which is almost as big as the Gloria Maris.

An impressive rooting section from the Peninsula will be aboard Jon Konigshofer's Wild Wind to follow the course and join in the festivities at the end of the race.

A Birthday Celebration

A festive air prevailed at the San Antonio Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hinsdale on Saturday evening, when some 25 guests gathered to wish Mr. Hinsdale a happy birthday. Following dinner, everyone enjoyed dancing or listening to an unusual musical combination of piano, drums and marimba.

For the family, the birthday celebration started officially at breakfast, when Mrs. Hinsdale and the children, Heather and Adam, appeared with a candle-studded coffee cake and an array of gaily wrapped presents.

Bob Michela To Marry

On May 29, Catherine Ann Hersey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Theodore Hersey of Easton, Pennsylvania, will become the bride of Second Lieutenant Robert John Michela (USA), the son of Mrs. Joseph A. Michela of Carmel and the late Brigadier General Joseph A. Michela. Mrs. Michela will travel East for the wedding, which will take place in the chapel of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

Lieutenant Michela, known as Bob to his friends in the Carmel High School class of 1956, graduated in 1964 from West Point, where he was a member of the ski team, captain of the baseball team, and an all-around athlete. He is presently stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, where the couple will make their home following their marriage.

The nephew of Miss Margaret Lial of Big Sur, Bob is the member, on his mother's side, of an old Monterey family. Residing in Tucson, Arizona, are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Michela, and an uncle, John B. Michela II.

His fiancée, who graduated from Pennsylvania State University, is engaged in graduate work at Cornell University, where she will receive a master's degree this month. An outstanding student and participant in college activities, she holds membership in Delta Delta Delta, Mortar Board, Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Nu and Alpha Lambda Delta and was president of the Inter-Collegiate Association of Women Students.

She is the sister of Mary Sue and Paul Hersey, both of Easton, Pennsylvania.

New Carmelite

Malcolm Donald Reeves Moran (Christopher Robin for short) upped the local census count on April 23 with his arrival at Community Hospital. With an artist-father, Malcolm Moran, and an artist-godfather, Donald Buby, he stands a good chance of becoming a contributor to Carmel's art galleries.

The new baby is the stepbrother of Kim and Susan Painter, who are delighted with the addition to the family. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Moran Sr., of Bainbridge Island, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Detroit.

CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB

For the last meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club book section this year, on Monday at 2 p.m., Mrs. Stanley D. Wilson will present San Francisco jeweler Robert Lindemann, whose subject is "Romantic Lore of Precious Jewels," a talk illustrated by color slides. A third-generation jewelry designer, Mr. Lindemann will speak of the wearing of gems through many centuries and their effect on the economy of the world.

Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Edwin H. Becker, Mrs. Leo Murcell, Mrs. Fred Farley and Mrs. Harold Cohon.

MISSION ACTIVITIES

The Catholic Daughters will serve breakfast on Sunday in the school cafeteria from 8 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

New officers of the Mothers' Club, to be installed on June 3, are Mrs. Anthony Klepich, president; Mrs. Philip Coniglio, vice president; Mrs. Sal Nicita, treasurer; Mrs. John Wecker, secretary; Mrs. Kevin Walsh and Mrs. Alex Thacker, advisory board members.

New officers for the Altar Society are Mrs. Kenneth White, president; Mrs. F. J. Sparolini, vice president; Mrs. R. Carr, secretary; and Mrs. John Doud, treasurer.

OFFICERS' WIVES' CLUB

Next Thursday, the Officers' Wives' Club of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School will meet for a pool-side picnic and a demonstration by Ruth Buol of her creative jewelry. Hostesses for the picnic, to begin at 11:30 a.m. beside the school swimming pool, will be the wives of members of the Naval Engineering department.

Musicians Entertained

Miss Mary Lindsay-Oliver, long associated with the musical life of the community, opened the doors of her studio, "Wildwood," on Sunday afternoon for an informal gathering of members of the Monterey County Symphony and their friends. The open house is an annual event to which Miss Lindsay-Oliver's host of friends always look forward.

TOWN HOUSE

Mr. Charles Haugh, a registered landscape architect and instructor in this field, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Garden Club at the Carmel Foundation Town House next Thursday at 8 p.m. Mr. Haugh will show colored slides and discuss community projects.

Refreshments will be served after the program, to which the public is invited.

Barbara Torrey Married

Allhallows' Catholic Church in La Jolla was the setting on May 1 for the wedding of Barbara Morgan Torrey to Willard H. Smith Jr., of West Los Angeles. Barbara, the daughter of Mrs. Frank Gordon Campbell of Pebble Beach and La Jolla, was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Frank Gordon Smith. A reception was held at the Admiral Kidd Officers' Club in San Diego following the ceremony.

The bride's father was the late Commander Phillip H. Torrey Jr. (USN). She is the granddaughter of Captain Dallas C. Laizure (USN Ret.) of Pebble Beach, and the late Mrs. Laizure. Her paternal grandparents are Major General Phillip H. Torrey Sr. (USMC Ret.) and Mrs. Torrey of La Jolla. Her brother, Lieutenant Phillip H. Torrey III (USMC) is stationed at El Toro Marine Base.

Barbara attended the University of California at Santa Barbara, the University of Arizona and San Diego State College. She is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and, prior to her marriage, was a member of The Spinners in San Diego.

Mr. Smith, the son of Mr. Willard H. Smith Sr. and the late Mrs. Smith of Mattituck, Long Island, is an associate of the investment banking firm of Glore Forgan, William Staats Inc. of Los Angeles. He attended Cornell University and was graduated from the University of North Dakota, where he was a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Following graduation, he served in the Navy with VJ Squadron 96.

Farrs Attend Wedding

Long ago, John Farr promised his niece, Petrea Nelson, that he would sing at her wedding and he fulfilled his promise on Saturday when her marriage to Ronald Hartman took place in the Wayfarer's Chapel at Palos Verdes.

Mr. and Mrs. Farr, with their daughters, Dena and Kathy, traveled to Southern California for the ceremony and reception which followed. Accompanying them was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred Heise of Minden, Nevada, who is currently visiting the Farrs in Carmel.

South Pacific Cruise

Mrs. Ruth Hosch of Carmel Hacienda sailed from San Francisco last week on the SS MONTEREY for a 42-day cruise which will include calls at the ports of Bora Bora, Papeete, Rarotonga, Auckland, Sydney, Noumea, Suva, Niuafo'ou, Pago Pago and Honolulu.

Patrick Is His Name

The first child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banks, who was born at Community Hospital on April 25, has been named Patrick Lynn. Unfortunately for the new baby and his mother, Mr. Banks is serving with the Army in a remote section of Japan and may not be able to see his son until he returns at the end of the year.

On the other side of the coin, however, Patrick's grandmother, Mrs. Edward Stromel, arrived from Cherry Hill, New Jersey, on the day he was born and will remain for some time with her daughter. Patrick's paternal grandparents are Mrs. Katherine June Banks of Carmel, and Elwyn P. Banks of Santa Barbara.

Publishes Book

The forthcoming publication of Monterey Peninsula College's fifth book this year—that is, the fifth textbook authored by an MPC faculty member—was announced at the college last week.

Owen Patrick of Carmel Valley, electronics instructor, said his book, like those of Max Tadlock, Dr. Idelle Sullens, Stephen James and Dr. N. Ray Gilmore, will appear in the fall.

Entitled "Creative Electronics Fabrication," the book will be published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston. Containing drawings and photographs by Patrick, it is the first of its kind in the field, since nothing has previously been written, he said, which covers "all the mechanical aspects of electronics, from sheetmetal work to the silk screen processes used in printed circuits."

Awards for Cub Scouts

Cub Scouts of Carmel Pack Three displayed their plant projects at their meeting at River School last week as a part of Green Thumb Month. Den One opened the meeting with the flag ceremony and later performed a drum dance using Indian drums made by the members during den meetings.

Receiving awards from Cubmaster Ray Benson were Bruce Brown and William Moore, denner stripes; Randy Keith and Douglas McHarry, assistant denner stripes; Scott Keith, three silver arrows; Jon Benson, wolf badge, gold arrow and one silver arrow.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by den mothers Mrs. William Keith, Mrs. Charles Tall, Mrs. Sidney Trevett and Mrs. Ray Benson.

Pack Three has promised to go "all out" on ticket sales for "Scout Craft Fair," which will be held May 22 at the Monterey Fair Grounds.

June Wedding In Mission

Miss Jeanne Layden, whose engagement to Charles Carney of Mountain View was announced in March, will be married in Carmel Mission Basilica on June 26.

Miss Layden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Layden of Montreal, where she attended school. Her brother is Maurice Layden of San Francisco.

Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. T. E. Carney of West Virginia.

Following their marriage and a wedding trip, the young couple will make their home in Mountain View, where Mr. Carney is employed.

Eustaces Europe Bound

Next Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eustace will board one of the newest jets for a flight to New York en route to London, thence to Austria. They will visit Switzerland, also, before flying to Stockholm, where they will take the "delightful little train" for a tour into Lapland and the Arctic. The Eustaces will have time to enjoy Copenhagen before their return to the United States via the polar route.

Returns From Maryland

Dr. Pao Ch'en Lee, of Carmel, chairman of the Chinese Mandarin department at the Defense Language Institute, West Coast Branch, has returned from the seventh annual conference of the American Association of Teachers of Chinese Languages and Culture.

Dr. Lee, a member of the association's executive board, left last Thursday for the meeting held at the University of Maryland.

BEACON HOUSE ART AUCTION

Art for the collector, the investor, the decorator—even for the gardener—will be available at Sunday's Beacon House Benefit Art Auction in the Terrace Room of the Mark Thomas Inn at 2 p.m.

Oils, photographic art, etchings, collages, water-colors, tempera on gesso, crayon drawings, and pastels will be up for bids. According to Mrs. Richard Godfrey, contributions chairman, over 80 artists have donated their work for this event.

The paintings and photographs may be purchased on a contract basis: a one-quarter down payment at the auction and the balance within three months.

Charles Thomas of Carmel Highlands will act as auctioneer.

A Japanese black pine bonsai by George Kadani, Peninsula bonsai expert, will be awarded to the winning donation ticket holder.

Brunch will precede the auction at noon and entertainment will be provided by Dave Toblason, piano, and Gary Ryan, banjo. Their program, "Music to View Art By" will include such selections as the "Maple Leaf Rag" and "When the Saints Come Marching In."

Kenneth S. Walker has served as coordinating chairman of the auction. John Cunningham, director of the Carmel Art Institute and president of the Carmel Art Association, has assisted Mr. Walker as technical consultant for the event which annually raises funds for Monterey Peninsula's alcoholic rehabilitation center.

Tickets for the program, including brunch are $3.50. Tickets to the auction only are $1 each. They will be available at the door. Reservations may be made by telephoning 624-2256 or 624-5641.

The Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts will present an illustrated lecture by Dr. Hans Huth of Carmel tonight at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of the Warfarer. His talk, "The Baroque Style in South Germany, Austria and Switzerland: Churches, Monasteries and their Decorations," will be accompanied by color slides taken by his wife, Marta Huth, an accomplished artist.

Dr. Huth, an AFA member, has recently returned from a tour on which he gave this lecture at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

He received his training at the universities of Vienna and Berlin and has been curator of the administration of royal palaces and parks of Prussia and Berlin, as well as former curator of decorative arts of the Art Institute of Chicago. He is also the author of several books on his field. Dr. Huth is giving this lecture for the benefit of the American Federation of Arts.

Bennett Bradbury, who has his home and studio along the coast south of Carmel Highlands, will be on the staff of teacher-artists during the summer session of Laguna Beach School of Art and Design, a non-profit school recognized by the California Board of Education.

Bradbury, a former Laguna Beach resident, has never been physically far from the sea from which he finds a never-ending source of compositional inspiration. His work has been collected by notables throughout the world, including the Shah of Iran, Huntington Hartford and Mrs. Helen DuPont.

His special two-week workshop will feature traditional marine painting.

Students Receive An Overdose Of Myths In Carmel Schools

Students in the Carmel Unified School District get an overdose of myths and the total English curriculum lacks continuity, a report of the Citizens Advisory Committee's subcommittee on English informed trustees on May 4. This subcommittee was the sixth group to point out a lack of sequential programs of instruction.

"Throughout our study of the English program," the committee pointed out, "the major problem presented in every meeting with the various teachers and administrators was the lack of constructive communication and coordination within departments, between departments at different grade levels, between departments at the same level at different schools, and between administrators and teachers. This lack is manifested in an uncoordinated program horizontally and vertically. First there is no cumulative program for the teaching of English for grades K through 12. Second, while many teachers we talked to had a well developed concept of what they wished to accomplish in their classes and a well developed program for accomplishing it, they had virtually no concept of where they fitted into the total program."

And as for myths, they are taught in the 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th and 10th grades. The subcommittee on English advised concentration of myth study in one grade.

Recommendations to improve the English curriculum in the subcommittee's report to the board included: (a) high school students should be taught many types of writing; (b) remedial reading programs should be expanded using teachers with special gifts or training; (c) students should know how to use the library and the dictionary by the time they reach high school; (d) the high school speech program should be expanded; (e) elective courses in journalism or communication arts should be taught and the high school newspaper expanded; (f) all grammar and mechanics should be reviewed in the first semester of the senior year of high school for students planning to take college boards or Subject A examinations; (g) development of skills needed to present research projects should begin in the elementary grades

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

Right or wrong, we are going to mention several books today for which we already have a short waiting list, the idea being that if others want to read them, you also may want to do so. But after this first fine flurry is over, one copy will be enough, so we are not going to order other copies to take care of the beginning rush. A word to the wise helps the early bird to gather more worms.

A biography of Mustafa Kemal, the father of modern Turkey, is by Lord Kinross and is entitled ATATURK. At an early age Mustafa Kemal was apart from other children. He did not participate in their games. In school he restarting with oral reports then written reports when necessary skills have been mastered.

Additional recommendations were more audio visual aids; a high school reading laboratory; adequate facilities for a speech program; at the middle school, a room for teacher meetings, paper grading and pupil conference and a more adequate requisition and supply system; if texts other than state texts are used, all students should have these books.

The subcommittee further suggested to the school board that a sequential program in English should include charts indicating by grade levels the introduction, repetition and expected mastery of each skill needed for reading and writing the English language; basic vocabulary, spelling and reading lists by grade level; lists of available supplementary material including books, periodicals and film aids.

To determine the effectiveness of instruction, the committee advised diagnostic tests at the beginning and end of each school year. There should be immediate remedial measures for students not meeting requirements, the subcommittee stressed.

Other subcommittee advice to the board was to hold yearly summer English workshop programs; have working English department heads in the high and middle schools and a language arts chairman in each elementary school.

To remedy the existing lack of communications between instructors, the subcommittee counseled regularly scheduled meetings of English teachers in the school district.

All the above material will be studied and evaluated by English teachers and administrators, then referred to the board for implementation action.

Members of the subcommittee on English were Richard Wilsdon, chairman, Mrs. Malcolm Jones, Mrs. Gregg King, Mrs. Howard McFann and Mrs. James Miller.

refused to sit cross-legged on the floor to study. While still a small boy he decided upon a military career—and he carried on with his plans and ambitions with singleness of purpose. Of great physical strength and with a brilliant mind, it is small wonder that this enterprising child developed into a world figure.

His real name was John Florence Sullivan, but you and I knew him as Fred Allen. As a young boy he worked in the Boston Public Library, which goes to prove that sometimes library employees can get ahead in the world. He went into vaudeville while still in his teens and from that time forward it was show business for him. Gradually he changed names and evolved the name Fred Allen. He had a biting wit and a warm heart. He loved writing letters and he did them almost without benefit of punctuation. A bunch of his letters have been gathered together into a book entitled FRED ALLEN'S LETTERS and the collection is worth the reading time of anyone.

William Templeton Veach has written a cookbook published under the name of A BON VIVANT'S COOKBOOK, and it is in this book that you will find enticing recipes gathered all over the world. Some of them look wonderful, others not so much so. In the latter category are such delectables as Pumpkin au Gratin. Hmmm?

In these troublous times we all need to know as much as possible about the forces at work around us. With this in mind, we have a new history of the first 100 years of the Ku Klux Klan. It was written by David Chalmers and is called HOODED AMERICANISM. The author is a college professor who spent eight years in research before he wrote the book. Well illustrated and well written, this is a timely book.

TALL TREES AND FAR HORIZONS is by Virginia Eifert and is the story of early botanists in America. Included among them is John Muir and an account of his 1,000-mile walk from Portage, Wisconsin, to Key West, Florida.

A new anthology of the short story was compiled by Whit and Hallie Burnett and entitled STORY JUBILEE. The great names from among the short story writers of today are all included here. A story a day keeps, or something.

for good taste,

Wherever you fish for sport—on the ocean, by the booming surf, or on some quiet country pond, it's great at the end of the day to head for a rewarding glass of beer. While you're talking over the ones that got away, or pan-frying the ones that didn't, you enjoy the hearty taste and cool refreshment only a glass of beer can give you so well. Yes, whatever your sport—bowling or strolling, golfing or gardening—a frosty glass of beer makes a naturally great accompaniment.

What a sing-y week it was! Just the way to welcome in Spring. (We are going to have Spring now, are we not?) On April 30 the Girl Scouts had a neighborhood sing at the Forest Theater which was lots of fun and which introduced to the public a lovely original song written by Mrs. Paul (Martha) Banker, mother of a Troop 2063 member.

All weekend, Girl Scouts at the International Language Camp were singing. They sang in German, in French, in Spanish, in English and they yelled ditties in some special dialect of their own that strongly resembles the old "scat talk" of early jazz. Remember? "Deedally wop, bingally boop, waaah waaah, shpzzzzzz!"

And Joe Brazell put on another of her wonderful musical programs at Sunset. This time, a minstrel show to end all minstrel shows — white gloved and white faced.

At the same time the minstrelers were making their folk nostalgic with "Everything's hazy; I'm just going crazy Si-i-ince I met you," the tumblers at junior high were making their parents nervous with their terrific trampoline tricks at the excellent show P.E. instructor White presented.

Remember when Warren Masten rescued that man over at Moss Landing a couple of months ago? It was one of the most dramatic and heroic actions seen around here in many a year. Well, Red Cross thought they'd give him a medal so they called him up and told him so. "Where did you take your life saving course?" they asked Warrie.

"Life saving course? What life saving course?" he replied.

Warren had never taken a life saving course.

At the class to train dog owners for the coming Del Monte Dog Show all the dogs were lined up on the Carmel High tennis courts in perfect television commercial form and a small boy, riding by on his bike, just couldn't resist the temptation. "Gravy Train!" he yelled.

All right, out with it—who stole Patrolman Walt Boyle's marking stick? Whichever one of you vengeful parking-ticket-getters is responsible? The Carmel Police Department wants you to know no action will be taken, no questions asked. Just bring it back and lean it up against the nearest No Parking post.

Now there's a paper boy what am! Ramie Miller, Jack and Ione's son, got himself banged up last month and is now wearing a full cast on his leg. But does that keep him from making deliveries? Not on your life! How many of you tycoons have that kind of dedication to business? ('Course, his mom and her car do help a little.)

The Talcott Bateses' Swedish student house guest, Bibi, went home to Stockholm at the end of MPC's first term and won first prize at a costume party. Guess what she wore. Madras shorts and a good old USA sweat shirt.

You aquarium nuts, take notice. Be sure you can trust your turtles before letting them share quarters with your goldfish. Jack Nichol of Bishop Kip School took a closer look at his collection the other day and could hardly believe his eyes. His turtle was absolutely monstrously huge and his fish were—gone.

Found: One soggy bundle of illegible love letters and an "All my love" inscribed torn photograph, thrown over the cliff in front of the Jeffers house. Another romance went on the rocks, I guess.

Our teenage daughter is looking for a new religion and yesterday she announced she'd found it. "I'm going to join that Science Fiction

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Mankind's quest for immortality will be presented at Christian Science churches this Sunday through the story of John the Baptist and his relationship to Christ Jesus. Subject of the Bible Lesson is "Mortals and Immortals," Golden Text: "Thou art no more, a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Galatians 4:7). The concluding Bible verse is from I Corinthians: "As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

Related passages from the Christian Science textbook will include these lines: "The real man being linked by Science to his Maker, mortals need only turn from sin and lose sight of mortal selfhood to find Christ, the real man and his relation to God, and to recognize the divine sonship" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 316).

PROGRAM ON BALKANS

Guests and members of VIEW gathered at the Country Club residence of the Reuben Johnsons recently for a showing by Dr. Johnson of slides taken during family travels last summer through the Balkans and surrounding countries. In their journey through Austria, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Greece and Italy, the Johnsons enjoyed visits to many historical sites.

Church," she said, "You know, the one where nobody's ever sick."

Did you get a May basket? I did. It was made out of a plastic tomato box and three Flex-Straws and it carried a note that said, "Don't forget the buck and a haf you owe me from waterin." Romantic?

Poor Art And Music Programs In Carmel Schools Subcommittees Report To Board Of Education

Music and art instruction in schools of the Carmel Unified School District is not commensurate with the cultural reputation of this community both the music and art subcommittees of the Citizens Advisory Committee reported to the board of education Tuesday May 4.

"It is quite difficult to understand why a community calling itself 'cultural minded' does not offer a complete or even adequate music program for its school system," stated the report of the music subcommittee.

"This community's art programs should be above national level," the art subcommittee stressed in its report which criticized the lack of facilities for high school art instruction in the Carmel district.

After hearing the reports on the art and crafts programs, Trustee Steven Sassoon said, "It is about time we stress some culture in the schools."

The music subcommittee pointed out that classroom music in the Carmel school system ranges from virtually nothing to a good program by music teachers.

"Music must be included in the class schedule and should be given by a music specialist in all elementary grades," this subcommittee recommended.

Another recommendation was that a one-semester music appreciation class should be required for all high school students.

Other recommendations were: (a) the addition of at least one and preferably two music instructors; (b) John Farr be designated as music supervisor for the school system; (c) live performances by groups of musicians and singers at all grade levels; (d) reinstatement of the summer school music program; (e) a proper room for teaching music in each school; (f) the present music faculty of the district be given the encouragement and help needed to bring a realistic sequential music program into being.

"Many leading colleges and universities recognize that a well-rounded person having an understanding and appreciation for the arts makes a better student and citizen. Music and art are vital to the growth of each student and we urge a stronger program in the school curriculum," the music subcommittee's report concluded.

Members of this group were John Gosling, chairman, Mrs. Glen Harnish, Mrs. Martin Irwin and Miss Angie Machado.

"It is the art subcommittee's belief that in a community of relatively high socioeconomic and cultural level, such as Carmel, there is no real need to relegate the art or crafts programs in the schools to the vocational-practical-utilitarian product level," this group observed of present instruction offered to students in the Carmel district.

"In general," the art subcommittee's report said, "the crafts programs were found to be below the standard that should prevail in this community." Advice on the craft program was that there is "need of careful study and re-evaluation by the administration."

The report also observed that there is no crafts teacher and as crafts room at Carmel High School where industrial arts teachers have been doubling as crafts instructors; that in craft instruction at both the junior and senior high schools concentration has been on the vocational rather than the cultural development of the student.

"The subcommittee questions this attitude in the community in this day and age," observations on the crafts program concluded.

The subcommittee on art's report disclosed that the art program at both schools is far superior to the crafts program but the art room at the high school is inadequate and handicaps the teacher.

Considering the inadequacy of high school art instruction facilities, the subcommittee report said "It is no wonder that the student work displayed compares poorly to other high schools of this size in communities which are not art conscious as is Carmel."

Recommendations made by the subcommittee on arts and crafts programs were: (a) reevaluate course outlines; (b) start a bonafide crafts program at the high school; (c) relate the crafts program to the art program; (d) remove crafts from the industrial arts or vocational training program; (e) need for a larger art room, also a crafts room, at Carmel High; promote a flow of ideas and information between the elementary, junior high, high school and Monterey Peninsula College.

Alex Gonzales, chairman of the art subcommittee and an instructor at MPC, told the board of education that students at the junior college from Carmel High School "want to toy with art" thus demonstrating they do not have the necessary background in art instruction to measure up to art students at MPC from Monterey and Pacific Grove schools.

In addition to Mr. Gonzales, members of the art subcommittee were Edgar Bissantz, Mrs. Beth Garcia and Gerald Wasserman.

Both reports will be submitted to teachers concerned for recom-

Symphony Bids To Taylor-Burton Film One-Third Accepted

Although invitations to the Monterey County Symphony's benefit party and showing of Martin Ransohoff's film, "The Sandpiper," starring Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton and Eva Marie Saint, only were put in the mail last week, reservations are near the one-third mark, Cecil H. Barker, chairman of the event reports.

The picture, which was filmed on location here last fall, is not scheduled for release to the public until the end of June. However, Mr. Ransohoff was so pleased with the fine community cooperation he received here, also the worthiness of the symphony cause, that he agreed to this special showing.

The 9 p.m. screening will be followed by a champagne supper at the Golden Bough Cinema and a discotheque party to be held simultaneously at the Circle Theatre. Music before and after the film will be provided by Mike Marotta and his Del Monte Lodge orchestra and will include a special arrangement of the theme music from "The Sandpiper."

Admission to the affair will be by patron and sponsor donations to the Symphony Sustaining Fund at $25 and $50 each. All seats for the film presentation will be reserved and applications will be filled in order of receipt. Mrs. Howard S. Bucquet of Carmel is reservations chairman. Additional information may be obtained by telephoning her at 624-6141 or Symphony headquarters, 624-4125.

LIBRARY STORY HOUR FOR SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN

A story hour for school age children will be held at 10:00 a.m. in Harrison Memorial Library May 15, 22, and 29. Any child of school age who is interested in listening to stories, is welcome to attend. The library will begin a second series of three story hours for the younger children, the pre-school crowd, on May 26. This particular pre-school series is already full size and no more little ones can be accommodated. There will be later pre-school story hours for tots not yet enrolled if parents will come in with their children and enroll with the Children's Librarian. No enrollment is needed for the school age group.

DIVISION 1. Garbage Collection

DIVISION 2. Public Waste Containers

DIVISION 3. Open Privies Prohibited

DIVISION 4. Contamination of Food Stuffs

DIVISION 5. Animals and Animal Wastes

DIVISION 6. Rabies Quarantine & Control

DIVISION 7. Lodging Regulations

DIVISION 1.

GARBAGE COLLECTION

900. TERMS DEFINED. The words ashes, garbage, rubbish, refuse, waste and occupied premises shall be defined as follows:

ASHES shall mean ashes as conventionally known.

GARBAGE shall mean such putrescible matter as regularly accumulates as an incident to the occupation of premises and shall be deemed to mean and made to include table refuse and every description of discarded matter, animal or vegetable, (including unwashed glass, metal or plastic containers for the same), that attends the preparation, consumption, transportation or storage of meat, fish, fowls, fruits, vegetable and other foods of whatever character.

REFUSE shall be deemed to mean and include such combustible and non-combustible materials as regularly accumulates as an incident to the occupation of premises and shall include cloth, rags, paper, leather, shoes, rubber, matting, bedding, boxes, chairs, tin cans, bottles, crockery, glass and the like.

RUBBISH shall mean such material as irregularly accumulates upon premises, or results from construction, such as cut grass, tree trimming, weeds, plaster, brick, stone and the like.

WASTE shall be deemed to mean and include ashes, rubbish and refuse.

OCCUPIED PREMISES shall mean any building or portion of a building which is occupied and used as a dwelling, place of living or place of business by a single business entity or family, and shall include all outhouses used in connection therewith, such as garages, wood sheds and the like, and all open spaces on any building site in connection therewith.

Premises devoted to residential use having once been occupied, shall for all purposes of this division be considered as occupied premises in the future, except for such periods of time as an exemption from service or minimum charge may have been obtained pursuant to Section 907.2 hereinafter.

CITY GARBAGE COLLECTOR shall mean any person with whom the city may contract for the collection of garbage, ashes or refuse within the city; or in the absence of such contract, it shall mean any person or organization including the city itself, lawfully engaged in the collection of garbage within the city.

Nothing in this division shall be construed to forbid the maintenance in the R-1 District, according to good gardening practice, of a compost pile consisting of pine needles, leaves, grass, and garden debris in a quantity appropriate for use on the premises.

900.1 GENERATION OF GARBAGE PRESUMED. It is hereby conclusively presumed that garbage will be generated or created in connection with the occupancy of any occupied premises devoted to residential use where such premises contain any facilities that can be devoted to the cooking or refrigeration of food products.

901. CARE OF GARBAGE AND WASTE. Every tenant, lessee, occupant or owner of any premises where garbage is created or presumed to be created shall provide on such premises, in a suitable place, one or more water-tight, galvanized metal or plastic garbage receptacles, fitted with two handles, of not less than five (5) gallons nor more than thirty-six (36) gallons capacity, with tight fitting galvanized metal or plastic covers, for receiving all garbage created on such premises. The cover of said garbage receptacle must be kept on at all times except during the time of putting in or removing of the garbage. All garbage must be removed from the premises where the garbage is created.

Every tenant, lessee, occupant or owner of any premises where ashes or refuse are created shall, in addition to the garbage receptacle, provide on such premises one or more receptacles having a capacity of not to exceed thirty-six (36) gallons or 4.8 cubic feet or such receptacles as may be provided by the Garbage Collector, to contain all ashes or refuse which may accumulate upon said premises.

All empty cans, jars or vessels containing residue subject to mold, souring or putrefactive decay must be scalded out with boiling water before being placed in a receptacle for ashes or refuse.

All garbage receptacles shall be kept clean and in a sanitary condition.

All receptacles containing garbage or waste shall be located in such places as to be readily accessible for removing and emptying the same, and wherever feasible shall not be placed within the limits of a street or alley.

902. ASHES shall not be placed in any vessel or container of wood or other combustible material.

903. REMOVAL OF GARBAGE AND WASTE. All garbage accumulated in private dwellings or residences shall be removed at least once a week. All garbage accumulated in hotels, or other multiple dwellings serving meals, boarding houses, restaurants, fresh food markets and other like places shall be removed at least every two days, or oftener if necessary. All waste shall be removed as often and as soon as the receptacles provided therefor are filled.

904. DUMPING GARBAGE OR WASTE IN STREET, ETC., OR ON PRIVATE PROPERTY.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, dump, place, scatter or throw any garbage, refuse, rubbish or waste upon the surface of, or bury the same, in or upon any alley, street, road, highway, public park or other public property or public place in said City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, or in or upon the beach owned by said City, except waste deposited on city property in connection with authorized municipal fill operations.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, dump, place, scatter or throw any garbage, refuse, rubbish or waste upon the surface of any private property in said city; or to bury the same in or upon any private property without the consent of the owner thereof or after being notified by the proper authorities of said city that such practice is a menace to the public health.

905. BURNING OF CERTAIN WASTE MATERIALS PERMITTED. Waste consisting of paper and wooden materials, and dry grass, brush or leaves may be burned in stoves, fireplaces or in conformance with the provisions of Part V of this Code, provided that such burning is done in such manner as to permit continuous combustion by a visible flame.

905.1 BURNING OF GARBAGE, MANURE OR CERTAIN WASTE MATERIALS UNLAWFUL. Within the city it shall be unlawful for any person to burn any garbage, manure or waste not permitted to be burned by the provisions of Section 905. of this Code. It shall likewise be unlawful within the city for any person owning, occupying or managing property to permit the burning of such garbage, manure or waste on such property.

906. ACCUMULATION OF GARBAGE, WASTE AND DISUSED MACHINERY ON PRIVATE PROPERTY. The accumulation of garbage and waste on private property within the city, and not disposed of as provided in this division, and the accumulation of items of machinery or household appliances that have fallen into disrepair or disuse in an area that such machinery or appliances are readily visible from adjacent property or the public view, on private property within the city, is hereby determined to be a nuisance, and it shall be unlawful for any person to make or permit such accumulations, or to allow such accumulations to remain on any private property owned or occupied by such persons.

907. COMPULSORY COLLECTION OF GARBAGE. It is hereby required that the City Garbage Collector collect garbage at least once a week from every occupied residence or apartment within the city, where garbage is created or presumed to be created, and from restaurants, fresh food markets and other like occupancies creating garbage, as frequently as such garbage is required to be removed by the provisions of this division.

It is further required that all ashes required to be removed and all refuse attributable to an occupancy be collected by the City Garbage Collector from every occupied premises as frequently as such ashes and refuse are required to be removed by the provisions of this division.

907.1 LIABILITY FOR PAYMENT FOR COLLECTION SERVICE. Every tenant, lessee, occupant or owner of any premises where garbage collection is required by this division, is hereby made jointly and severally liable for payment for such collection service to the City Garbage Collector. The liability imposed hereby shall likewise be applied to any minimum charge for any garbage collection service as herein provided.

907.2 LIABILITY FOR MINIMUM SERVICE CHARGE. The tenant, lessee, occupant and owner of any premises devoted to residential use which contains facilities for the cooking or refrigeration of food products, are hereby made jointly and severally liable to the City Garbage Collector for a minimum service charge as established in Section 909.7 hereinafter, for all periods after such premises are originally occupied, except for such periods as such premises may be exempted from the minimum service charge under the provisions of Section 907.3.

907.3 EXEMPTION FROM RECEIVING SERVICE AND FROM LIABILITY FOR MINIMUM SERVICE CHARGE. The owner or tenant of any premises may discontinue garbage collection at such premises and be exempted from the minimum service charge for such periods of time as said premises may be vacant, upon filing with the City Clerk's office a declaration under perjury, in duplicate, declaring the period of time said premises will be vacant; and further, promising to notify said City Clerk's office in writing of the termination of said vacancy. The owner or tenant of any premises generating little or no garbage, ashes or refuse on said premises because of smallness of family, habits of generally eating meals out, or other like reasons, shall be exempted from receiving service and from the minimum service charge, upon filing a declaration under perjury, in duplicate, setting forth the reasons that little or no garbage, ashes or refuse are generated on the premises occupied by the declarant, and further stating that the garbage, ashes and refuse that may be generated by the declarant can be deposited in a suitable receptacle within 200 feet of declarant's premises with the consent of the owner of such receptacle. This declaration shall be accompanied by a declaration under penalty of perjury by the person permitting the use of his receptacle consenting to such use by the person desiring the exemption. The City Clerk shall forthwith forward a copy of any such declaration so received by him to the City Garbage Collector. Any person exempt from garbage collection under the provisions of this section shall, for the period of such exemption, be likewise exempt from the necessity of maintaining garbage receptacles in accordance with Section 901 of the Municipal Code. The exemption granted herein shall exist only so long as in the first instance a vacancy actually exists; and in the second instance, so long as such garbage, ashes and refuse as are generated on the premises are deposited in proper receptacles belonging to another who has filed his consent with the city in conformance with this section.

908. EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO COLLECT GARBAGE, ASHES AND REFUSE. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, except the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea or its duly authorized agents, servants, employees or licensees, to collect or gather garbage, ashes and refuse within the corporate limits of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

909. CONTRACTS FOR REMOVAL OF GARBAGE, ASHES, OR REFUSE. (a) The City Council may enter into a contract with and license any person as Collector of garbage, ashes or refuse upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, and the rates of removal for such garbage and ashes or refuse and the mode of collection of such rates shall be as provided in Section 909.1 hereof.

(b) Calling for Bids. If the City Council elects to enter into a contract for the collection and disposal of garbage, ashes or refuse, it shall by resolution call for bids for the granting of an exclusive franchise for the collection and disposal of garbage, ashes or refuse according to the terms and conditions set forth in the resolution for a period of time not to exceed ten (10) years.

(c) Publishing of Notice. The City Council shall cause to be published once a week for (2) successive weeks in the official newspaper of said city, a Public Notice which shall set forth all of the terms and conditions embraced in the resolution, and the time, date and place for the receiving and opening of sealed bids, which shall not be sooner than one (1) full week from the date of the first publication of the Notice.

(d) Award of Franchise. Upon examination by the City Council of the bids, the franchise may be awarded to the best bidder. The City Council may postpone the granting of the franchise from time to time until it has had a full and complete opportunity to examine into the merits of each bid and, if none of the bidders are deemed satisfactory to the City Council, the City Council may reject all bids and either advertise for additional bids or enter into an interim contract with any satisfactory bidder upon such terms and conditions as are satisfactory to the City Council for a term not to exceed one (1) year.

(e) Filing Bond. The successful bidder shall file with the City Council, upon granting of the franchise, a bond in favor of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, in an amount and under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the City Council.

(f) Other Terms and Conditions. The City Council may, in the resolution and advertised Notice, impose terms and conditions other than those mentioned in this Division, so long as they are not in conflict with the provisions of this Division.

909.1 RATES AND FEES. A charge shall be collected from the owner, lessee, tenant or occupant of all occupied premises within the corporate limits of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, for services rendered in the collection and removal of garbage, ashes or refuse, as follows:

(a) Single Collection. For the single removal of the contents of one or more garbage, ashes or refuse receptacles having a capacity not in excess of thirty-six (36) gallons or 4.8 cubic feet—each receptacle $1.00.

(b) Monthly Rates. For the collection of garbage, ashes and refuse up to but not exceeding thirty-six (36) gallons or 4.8 cubic feet:

ted by this Code, the Collector may enter into a special agreement with such tenant, lessee, occupant or owner, for the collection and disposal of such garbage and ashes or refuse, subject to such terms and at such rates as may be mutually agreed upon, provided, however, that the time rate in such cases shall not be in excess of $12.00 per hour per truck.

Special pickups on days other than regular collection days will have a minimum charge of $2.50.

In the event that such Collector and such tenant, lessee, occupant or owner are unable to agree on the terms and conditions of such special agreement, or the rates to be charged hereunder, the matter shall be arbitrated by the Commissioner of Health and Safety. If his recommendations are not acceptable to either party, the matter shall be finally determined by the City Council.

The Collector is hereby authorized to collect the fees for such removals at the above provided rates three (3) months in advance from all customers, provided that the Collector may make arrangements with the occupant, owner, lessee or tenant of any premises for payment at periods not exceeding one (1) year.

The rates and fees herein provided shall become and be effective on and after the first day of April 1965.

910. ENFORCEMENT. It shall be the duty of the Health Officer and the Chief of Police to enforce the provisions of this division, and they or their duly appointed agents shall have the power and authority to enter all premises at and during reasonable hours for the purpose of determining whether or not the provisions of this Division are being violated.

If any person, fails or neglects, for a period of three (3) days after written notice, to have any garbage, waste or manure removed, the Health Officer may direct the same to be removed by the Collector, and for this purpose the Collector and Health Officer may enter the premises and remove or cause to be removed all such garbage, waste or manure so condemned and ordered to be removed, and the cost of the removal shall be a charge and lien on such premises or may be collected in a personal action against the owner or occupant of said premises. The refusal by the owner or occupant of any premises to allow or permit such garbage, waste or manure to be so removed shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

911. NON-LIABILITY FOR ACCIDENTS OR DAMAGE. The City of Carmel-by-the-Sea or any of its agents or officers, other than the Collector of garbage and waste, shall not be liable for any accidents, damage or neglect of any kind or nature arising from the collection and removal of garbage and waste. Garbage collection shall be performed in as neat and quiet a manner as may be possible consistent with reasonable dispatch. The Collector shall carry the necessary Industrial Accident insurance as provided by the laws of the State for the benefit of employees. Upon his failure to do so, the City Council may provide such insurance and charge the premium therefor to said Collector, who shall reimburse the City for any premium paid for such insurance, on demand.

DIVISION 2.

PUBLIC WASTE CONTAINERS

920 TERM DEFINED. Public waste containers are those containers or receptacles placed by the City on sidewalks, beaches, and other public lands for the convenience of the public.

921. PERMITTED USES. Public waste containers are intended for the deposit of such waste and litter as is generated in and upon the public streets, sidewalks, and lands of the City, such as cigarette and candy wrappers, waste paper, and the garbage and waste

DIVISION 3.

OPEN PRIVIES PROHIBITED

930. OPEN PRIVIES in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea are hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be abated by the person, firm or corporation, owning or possessing the premises upon which the same is located within ten (10) days from and after notice to abate the same is given in writing signed by the Superintendent of Streets of said City, and served upon such owner or upon the person, firm or corporation in possession of such premises.

931. Upon the expiration of the period of said notice and upon the failure of the owner or possessor of the premises in question to abate such nuisance, said Superintendent of Streets shall forthwith cause the same to be abated and the excavation used for such privy to be filled with earth. Thereupon said Superintendent of Streets shall certify the cost of said work to the assessor of said City who shall enter said amount against said property upon the next following assessment.

DIVISION 4.

CONTAMINATION OF FOOD STUFFS

940. In order to safeguard against the contamination of fresh vegetables, fruits, berries, meats and other food stuffs not sealed in containers, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation making delivery of any such food stuffs to any retail grocer, butcher, restaurant or other retail store where such food stuffs are displayed and sold at retail, to deposit the same, or any of the same, on any sidewalk or other public place in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea or in any yard therein connected with any such store except when delivery of same is made personally to the owner, agent or employees of such store.

941. That it shall be unlawful for any such owner, agent or employee receiving any such delivery to leave the same unguarded during the time it is exposed to contamination in any such place or to fail to remove such food stuffs so delivered from the place of delivery to the place or places within the store for which such delivery was made, or forthwith and immediately thereafter to place such food stuffs in such containers or upon such shelves or racks or in cases or upon display in such manner that the same cannot be contaminated by any dog or dogs which may enter any such store or stores.

DIVISION 5.

ANIMALS & ANIMAL WASTES

950. It shall be unlawful for the owner or person having the custody of any dog or dogs to permit or allow the same to roam about or to be in the business zone or district of said City of Carmel-by-the-Sea as said district is delineated on the zoning map of said City, now on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City and hereby referred to for further particulars, except when such dog or dogs is upon a leash held by the person having custody of said dog or dogs; and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation owning or having the custody of any such dog or dogs, except guide dogs engaged in guiding a blind person, to permit the same to enter any grocery store, meat market, fruit or vegetable store or restaurant in said City or to contaminate any food stuffs delivered to any such store and deposited on any sidewalk or in any yard contiguous thereto.

951. ANIMALS ON BEACH. It shall be unlawful for any person to ride, drive, lead or permit any horse, mule, or donkey on the beaches and sand dunes owned by the City, east of the mean high-water line of said beaches, except for an access strip of land bounded by the westerly prolongation of the northerly and southerly lines of Santa Lucia Avenue and the contiguous strips of land fifty (50) feet in width on either side of said strip of land.

sance for any person or persons to keep or cause to be kept any swine or barnyard fowl whatsoever within the corporate limits of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

953. THE CARE, TREATMENT AND DISPOSAL OF MANURE. Every owner, lessee, tenant or occupant of any stable, barn, pen, apartment or enclosure in which any horse, cow or other animals are kept, or any place where manure or urine from such animals accumulates, shall at all times keep or cause to be kept the said stables, barn, pen, apartment or enclosure in a clean and wholesome condition, and shall provide for the removal of such manure and urine, in accordance with the following provisions, to-wit:

Unless all manure accumulating at any such places described above be removed every three (3) days, boxes, or receptacles of a design and construction acceptable to the Health Officer shall be provided by each owner, lessee, tenant or occupant of such places, and said boxes or receptacles shall be used only for the purpose of containing the accumulation of said manure and shall be kept tightly closed at all times except when manure is being placed therein or removed therefrom, and in no instance shall manure be placed in said boxes or receptacles in such manner as to prevent the tight closing of the lid. Said boxes or receptacles shall be proof against access to the contents thereof by flies. The contents of said boxes or receptacles shall be removed as often as filled, or oftener if so required by the Health Officer. Any manure so removed must not be stored or gathered into piles if used as fertilizer within one hundred (100) feet of any dwelling unless used within two days. Any manure stored or gathered into piles between one hundred (100) feet and five hundred (500) feet of any dwelling must be used within twelve (12) days.

DIVISION 7
LODGING REGULATIONS
SECTION 970

It shall be unlawful for any person, except persons subject to the licensing provisions of Division 2, Part III of the Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, to furnish living or sleeping accommodations, with or without board, for any period of time to any person or persons for a consideration (whether money or other thing of value) without first having obtained a Lodging Permit from the City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. It shall be unlawful for the holder of any such Lodging Permit to furnish living or sleeping accommodations to more persons than are authorized by the terms of such Permit.

SECTION 971

Any person desiring to furnish living or sleeping accommodations for a consideration shall file an application for a Lodging Permit with said City Clerk. Such application shall indicate the full name of the applicant and, if the applicant is not the owner of the premises for which the permit is sought, the name of such owner; if the applicant is an individual, the number of persons in the applicant's family normally residing on the premises and their names; the lot and block number of the premises; the number of rooms in the premises, particularly specifying the number of bedrooms and bathrooms; the number of beds, specifying whether single or double; and the number of persons to whom the applicant desires to furnish living or sleeping accommodations and attach to the application a sketch of the floor plan of the premises, indicating the approximate size of all rooms and their intended use.

SECTION 972

The City Clerk shall refer such application to the Building Inspector of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea who shall, within five (5) days after the receipt of said application, examine the premises and the facilities contained therein and shall indicate on said application the maximum number of persons which, under the applicable provisions of the Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and of the California State Housing Act may be furnished living or sleeping accommodations in the said premises.

SECTION 973

Upon receiving the application from the Building Inspector, the City Clerk shall issue a permit authorizing the applicant to furnish living or sleeping accommodations, or both, to the number of persons the Building Inspector has certified can be legally housed in the premises and shall collect a fee therefor equal to Five Dollars ($5.00) per year for each person authorized by the said permit to be housed in the said premises at one time.

SECTION 974

It shall be the duty of the Health Officer and the Building Inspector, and they are hereby authorized and directed to enter and inspect the premises in respect of which Lodging Permits are issued, from time to time, but not less than once during each twelve (12) months period, to ascertain that all fire, health and sanitation regulations of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and State of California are being observed and that not more than the permitted number of persons are being furnished living or sleeping accommodations therein.

SECTION 975

Sections 970 to 974, inclusive, are hereby declared to be adopted in the interest of the public health, welfare and safety of the residents of Carmel-by-the-Sea and if any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of such sections, and the said Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea hereby declares that it would have adopted each of such sections, subsections, sentences, clauses and phrases irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the other of them may be declared unconstitutional.

SECTION 976

Any person, firm or corporation convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Division shall be subject to the penalties provided in Section 30 of the Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. In addition any Lodging Permit held by any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Division shall become null and void and shall be surrendered to the City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and such Lodging Permit shall not be reissued for a period of one (1) year following the date of such conviction.

James Pope

Funeral services were held Saturday morning for James Pope, a Carmel resident since 1945, who died last Thursday in a Peninsula rest home after a brief illness. He was 84 years of age and a native of Cambusnethan, Scotland.

Mr. Pope came to the United States to make his home in Ohio in 1903 and was married in that year to Elizabeth Syme. Until his retirement in 1945, he was an agent for a utility company in Youngstown, Ohio.

He was a charter member and past master of the William Farr Lodge No. 672, F&AM, of Girard, Ohio, and a 60-year member of Clan McDonald of Scotland. He belonged to the Carmel Presbyterian Church and to the White Shrine of Jerusalem of Pacific Grove.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Pope is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Mountford of Carmel; four sons, Norman Pope of San Jose, Robert H. Pope of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Nesbit Pope of Cleveland, Ohio, and Thomas Pope of Santa Monica; a brother and three sisters, all living in Scotland; 15 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Following services in the Dorney and Farlinger Memorial Chapel, with Dr. George Hunter Hall of the Carmel Presbyterian Church officiating, burial took place in the Masonic section of Mission Memorial Park.

Friends wishing to make memorial contributions for Mr. Pope may do so to the James Pope Memorial Fund of the Carmel Presbyterian Church.

tion renting land purchased by the city.

But persons who were organizing as a non-profit group to develop the Sunset property disbanded. This forced the city and the Sunset Committee to make other plans. In its final report to the council, this citizens committee did not abandon the idea of a center developed as earlier proposed. But with no such group in existence, perforce the Sunset Committee recommended other ways and means of using the school site for a cultural center. The city council decided to move the city hall and municipal offices to the Sunset site.

Next the Sunset Commission was established to develop, maintain and operate Sunset School as a cultural and community center after the city takes possession of the already purchased buildings and site.

So far they have learned that operation of the present facilities as a center presents the difficulties mentioned above.

This week, too, they learned something else. A new non-profit group, called Arts, Inc., is considering the Sunset site among others for the development of a $2-$3 million cultural center including a 1,000-seat auditorium, theatre, art gallery and museum and a multi-use underground parking facility.

However, should Arts, Inc. decide to ask the city to make the Sunset property available for their proposed center, they do not want the city hall on the premises.

Let us go, again, back a year! Neither the feasibility report, nor bond election ballot, nor official statement offering the bonds for sale mentioned placing the city hall and municipal offices on the Sunset property. Therefore, these facilities legally can only be located temporarily in the school buildings, as presently planned.

Secondly, the general plan of the city indicates that these facilities eventually be placed in a civic center fronting on Junipero Street between Fourth and Fifth avenues. Any permanent relocation would require legal amendments to the plan.

So, as matters now stand, the city hall and municipal offices cannot legally be located at Sunset, except as a temporary measure.

Temporary measures have, in the past, tended to become rather permanent in Carmel. The police station has been temporarily in its present cramped quarters for 17 years.

So what is the cultural center picture today? . . . A group of deteriorating buildings not suitable for full and permanent cultural and community center use . . . A temporary city hall located on the four-acre center site maybe for many years . . . Possibly no parking facility.

What happened to the picture of a year ago? Has it faded forever or can Arts, Inc. be considered as a possible restorer? These are questions, every citizen must consider in order to form firm decisions on the future of Carmel.

Any other Peninsula city will be eager to assume Carmel's cultural mantle if we let it drop. Arts, Inc. will go where the best offer is made. M.L.

A lunch featuring hamburgers and hot dogs will be served by a contingent of Army chefs at a nominal charge from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on the picnic grounds just east of the area where static displays will be exhibited. From 12:30-1:30 p.m., the 52nd Army Band will play a concert in the picnic area.

There will be a demonstration of driving small Army trucks by the Fourth Brigade on a driver's nightmare of gullies, straight hills potholes and brush. A city-type bus system will be set up for guests to visit all recreational facilities available to servicemen at Fort Ord including the service club, mammoth sports arena, large indoor swimming pool, craft and hobby shops and library. The buses will leave the main exhibit area every 15 minutes after 11 a.m.

The many static exhibits at Fort Ord will open at 8:30 a.m. and action displays at 11 a.m. Armed Forces Day events will end at 2 p.m.

NAVAL SCHOOL EVENTS

The U.S. Naval Postgraduate School is planning an open house for Armed Forces Day. Over 70 displays will be open to the public from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

While on board, visitors will have an opportunity to test their wits against the school's computer in a game of tic-tac-toe. Also on the docket for the day are tours of the school's academic departments and library. These will include electrical, mechanical and aeronautical engineering demonstrations as well as scientific experiments and exhibits in physics and chemistry.

The Navy's Fleet Numerical Weather Facility here will display fully automated plotting of computer-produced weather maps and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company will exhibit past, present and future telephones.

Upon arrival, guests will receive a brochure containing a map of the base. Group escorts will be provided and an information booth will be set up in the lobby of Spanagel Hall.

LANGUAGE SCHOOL REVUE

Two performances of "International Revue," an authentic, exotic program produced by students and faculty of the Defense Language Institute will be given on Saturday at 1:00 and 2:45 p.m. The DLI will be open to guests from 1-4 p.m.

The revue will feature Albanian and Balkan dancers, Swahili singers, balalaika playing, the famed Russian Choir, a German student chorus and the Spanish Trovadores, a costumed strolling minstrel group. This free entertainment will be given in the Tin Barn, high on the Presidio Hill where, too, extensive cultural displays from many lands will be exhibited.

Prototype classroom demonstrations will be open to the public in the auditorium of the Far East Division. Promptly at 1 p.m., a Spanish class will undergo an audio-visual drill. At 1:45 p.m. students of Hungarian will demonstrate structural drill. At 2:35 p.m., a class in its 36th week of a 47-week Thai course will conduct conversation based on slides.

'HELP!' CRIES GILROY

In answer to an appeal from Gilroy, the city council Tuesday night urged the State Division of Highways to undertake speedy scheduling of the construction of a Highway 101 bypass.

A letter from the Gilroy city council told a pitiful tale of piled up traffic in Gilroy and Morgan Hill. Much of this was caused by special events on the Monterey Peninsula they indicated.

The plea for aid stated that a bypass would eliminate this bottleneck, also benefit Carmel residents who may get tied up in miles-long lanes of traffic unless the cities south of San Jose are bypassed.

The Highway 101 bypass would also clear visitors from Carmel quicker, the letter added.

The Carmel council was persuaded to help.

The last demonstration, "American Tourist in Moscow," will be given as a bilingual exercise by advanced Russian students.

The cultural exhibits at the Tin Barn will include treasures from their native lands loaned by faculty members such as native costumes, arts and crafts, rugs, embroideries, porcelains, paintings and musical instruments, to name a few.

Host and hostesses for the DLI Armed Forces Day events will be servicemen and women and native-born instructors. Refreshment stands will be in operation. Profits from them will benefit Presidio youth activities. Guests are asked to use the Franklin Street entrance to the Presidio.

Marion Karr

Private graveside rites for Mrs. Marion Louise Karr were held Monday morning at Monterey Catholic Cemetery, with the Reverend Roger Dieudonne of Carmel Mission Basilica leading in prayer. Mrs. Karr died last Friday in a local hospital after a long period of failing health.

A resident of Carmel since 1934, she was born in Brooklyn, New York December 1, 1888.

Mrs. Karr was the mother of Mrs. Virginia Carr of Carmel and the sister of George Souther of Columbiaville, New York. She also leaves two granddaughters, Mrs. Cynthia Perkins of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Allen (Joan) Kirk of Radnor, Pennsylvania; and four great-grandchildren, Sabin Perkins of Manhattan Beach, and Augustus, Jennifer and William Kirk, all of Radnor, Pennsylvania.

Friends wishing to make memorial contributions for Mrs. Karr may do so to the Central Mission Trails Heart Association, P.O. Box 1329, Monterey.

The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

HIGH TWELVE CLUB

Dr. Wayne Rosenoff of the California Test Bureau will be the guest speaker at the Monday luncheon of the High Twelve Club at Cypress Club. Dr. Rosenoff will have as his subject "The Story of the Standardized Test."

All Masons and sojourners are invited to the meeting.

Sunset Commission Adds To Salary Of Carmel City Clerk

Any likelihood of higher pay, except routine step increases, or less steps to attain the top range in salary scales, became a lost hope for city employees Tuesday night when the city council undertook preliminary study of the 1965-66 municipal budget—except for the city clerk.

Mayor Herbert Blanks regretted that a personnel study had not been completed for council consideration before the heads of the various city departments prepared preliminary salary budgets. Any adjustments before completion of the study would be unfair, he added.

Building Inspector Richard Thomas, Police Chief Clyde Klaumann and Street Superintendent William Askew suggested salary adjustments to no avail.

Both Mr. Klaumann and Mr. Askew pointed out that, although the top step on the salary scales of their departments is comparable to other Peninsula cities, it took a Carmel employee four years longer to reach the highest step.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey observed that salary increases for Carmel employees had been made in the last few years for cost of living adjustment (4% across the board last year) and to bring salary scales up to levels comparable with other Peninsula cities.

Further increases this year might be unfair to the taxpayers of Carmel, especially without a personnel evaluation study, he said.

The one increase in salary approved Tuesday by the council was the addition of $600 to the salary paid to Hugh Bayless for serving as city clerk and secretary to boards and commissions. The additional pay, $50 a month for being the secretary of the new Sunset Commission, will bring Mr. Bayless's total salary to $11,460.

The council could discover no alternative but to approve this increase. The new commission adds 40 hours extra time to Mr. Bayless's work, total estimate 70 hours per week.

The council will next consider the 1965-66 budget on June 2 at 8 p.m. in city hall.

TIRED OF TRAFFIC AND TICKY-TACKY?

HERE ARE SOME SITES FOR SORE EYES...

YOUR FRONT YARD IS THE SEA on this fabulous ocean-front lot just down the pike about 5 minutes from Carmel. All the advantages of living right on the ocean, but in an area settled enough to have adequate fire and police protection, good water, city deliveries. This lot is $30,000 on good terms, and we have one in the same area, across the street from the sea, on a lovely knoll, for only $25,000.

OCEAN VIEW AND BEACH ACCESS—Just over the river from Carmel. Close to the Village, but with the additional value of a larger lot, underground utilities, the view, and the beach only a block or so away. Best of all, the price is only $15,000.

A CANYON SETTING IN CARMEL—A lot with 60 ft. on Atherton, over 200 ft. deep, and spreading 125 feet across a beautiful canyon in the rear. A perfect spot for one of the interesting house plans so often featured in Sunset, and the price is just $13,500.

DOWN THE COAST In the Palo Colorado canyon, 2½ acre sites for $7,500. Near Big Sur post office, some 5 acre sites with splendid views of the Sur valley at $21,000 per site. Or 80 to 120 acres with fabulous ocean views from $1,000 to $1,500 per acre, and even a few at less than that. Ask Hank Adams, our Coast expert, for specifics.

Arts, Inc. Plans Told To Sunset Commissioners

($25,000) could be earmarked for the operation and maintenance of Sunset, the report suggested.

The report also proposed that revenue from rental of Sunset facilities be retained for the development and improvement of the property.

A third suggestion, that the north playfield be paved and converted into a public parking lot, proved to be a controversial recommendation and was referred to a committee for further study.

Lastly, the report advocated employment of an independent expert to advise on required rehabilitation of the auditorium including new lighting and flats, remodeling of the unusable projection room, refinishing the stage and remodeling the backstage area.

Robert E. Smith, former Carmel fire chief, discussed with Sunset commissioners the fire safety report on Sunset School which he prepared at the request of the city council. He advised them that the facility, as is, is safe providing there is no change of type of occupancy in any particular room and the auditorium.

Classrooms may be safely occupied for instruction, office or meeting use. However, for a dramatic production in the special auditorium, special lighting would require a new electrical system. He advised that new auditorium wiring be kept separate from the electrical system in the rest of the facility.

The two major fire hazards in the existing buildings were uncovered, dilapidated steam heating pipes and deteriorated electrical wiring throughout the building, he said.

Kenneth Ehrman, member of Arts, Inc., the recently-formed group which plans to develop a $2-$3 million cultural center somewhere on the Peninsula, said that some of this group felt Sunset is the most desirable location for the project, but others did not.

He indicated that, if Sunset were made available to Arts, Inc., the group might reject other sites under consideration.

Mr. Ehrman added that Arts, Inc. would lease the Sunset site from the city and raise funds to develop a cultural center. All buildings eventually would be turned over to the city, either singly or together.

Facilities he mentioned were a 1,000-seat auditorium, a theatre, an art gallery and an underground parking facility.

"The crux of the matter is do you want a group such as Arts, Inc. to develop a cultural center?" he emphasized.

Mr. Ehrman, in answer to a question from Admiral Fisher, said that placing the city hall and administrative offices at Sunset would mean there would not be enough space left for the Arts, Inc. project.

Malcolm Millard said any combined city hall and cultural center use of the Sunset property would "dilute the appeal" of Arts, Inc. when the group sought financing for its project.

He told commissioners that there was a need for a permanent art gallery on the Peninsula and that many valuable works of art are now given by Peninsula persons to galleries elsewhere.

Within a week after the incorporation of Arts, Inc. was announced in the Pine Cone, he received a telephone call from a local resident offering the new group a $75,000 art collection, Mr. Millard informed commissioners.

Admiral Fisher suggested that a request in writing from Arts, Inc. be presented to the commission. Commissioners Wallace Doolittle and Ted Fehring were interested in some feasibility report from Arts, Inc.

Commissioners decided the Carmel Adult School should pay the regular classroom charge established Monday night. It is 10 cents per square foot per month, or $5 per day.

Classes of use were also established. They are: Class I, primarily commercial—Class II, non-profit groups or organizations soliciting contributions or charging admission—Class III, free civic activities.

Based on these uses, Sunset commissioners approved the following auditorium charges: Admission less than $1... Class I, $100; Class II, $75—Admission $1-$1.99; Class I, $150; Class II, $100—Admission $2-$2.99; Class I, $200; Class II, $125—Admission $3 or over; Class I, $250; Class II, $150.

Auditorium rehearsal fees were set at $3 per hour from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. on regular city working days but $5 per hour at all other times for organizations which have contracted to use the auditorium for one or more performances. A minimum charge of $10 was set for any rehearsal use.

The above rentals include a custodian during the performance and are based on a four-hour occupancy for each performance. Use in excess of four hours will be charged at the rate of $12.50 per hour.

Rentals of the cafeteria and gymnasium were set at Class I, $25; Class II, $15; Class III, $10.

These charges and all other recommendations were referred to the city council for approval.

The Sunset Commission will meet again on May 24, 7:30 p.m. in city hall.

Council Appoints New City Attorney

June, 1963. Between graduation and passing the California state bar examinations, Mr. Burleigh traveled in Europe, Russia and the United States for five months.

Born in Alexandria, Virginia, he received his elementary and high school education in Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi then spent a year at the University of Idaho. He was granted a B.A. degree in political science and general studies (cum laude) by the University of Colorado. From 1954-57 he served in the U.S. Marine Corps and was discharged with the rank of sergeant.

The prospective city attorney and his wife, Alison, live just outside the city limits on Guadalupe Street. They have a six-months-old daughter, Amery.

At Boalt Hall, Mr. Burleigh was a member of the moot court board and he is now a member of the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Other attorneys who applied for the Carmel city attorney appointment were Saul Weingarten, Mark Starr, Francis P. Lloyd and Mike Meheem.

Valley Airstrip Hazards Concern School Board

them to adhere to the traffic pattern so as to keep clear of the school at all times.

"I have been told that children cut across the field going to and from school so perhaps they should be made aware of the possibility of aircraft operations on the airport."

Mr. Sigourney informed the board there is "increased activity at the airstrip and talk of expansion."

"You should ascertain the danger," he declared and advised an opinion, in writing be obtained from Mr. Barnett and Mr. Davis, also another letter be obtained indicating the interest, if any, of the Washington D.C. office of the FAA in the problem.

Mr. Sigourney advised, too, that the county counsel give the school board, in writing, a legal opinion on the board's injury responsibility.

He pointed out that the board may be jointly or individually liable should injuries from a plane occur on the Tulareitos School premises.

He added that this letter might disclose whether or not the board should require a bond from the airstrip owner to indemnify the district if any accident should occur.

Trustee Clayton Neill Jr. said, "You are absolutely right, we should explore every available open avenue."

The board approved Mr. Neill's motion to undertake Mr. Sigourney's proposals, also inform the Monterey County Board of Supervisors of the airstrip situation.

Last night, the board appointed Trustee Steven Sassoon to ask Dr. F. C. Burleson, school physician, to reconsider his resignation. Dr. Burleson has done an outstanding job and efforts should be made to retain him, Superintendent Medill Bair emphasized.

Trustees authorized an agreement with the Tri-County Outdoor Science and Education Program for 230 sixth grade pupils to participate in a science camp program next fall. Cost for this, to the district, will be $10 per teacher and $8.40-$12.75 per pupil. Orville Rogers, Sunset School principal, was named to represent the board on the camp program's advisory committee.

The board accepted the lowest bid, that of Merrill Motor Company, and will purchase two 61-passenger diesel powered school buses for $24,791.52.

Miss Judy Spruell was hired to teach Spanish in the intermediate school next year.

Last night, the board also had a presentation by Roger Pilon, president of the Carmel chapter of the California School Employees Association, of inequities in salary scales between Carmel district and other districts in this area. Carmel district classified employees are seeking a five percent across the board salary increase and upward adjustment of several salary scales.

Also presented last night was the Citizens Advisory Committee's mathematics subcommittee report.

Genevieve Young

Funeral services for Mrs. Genevieve Young, the mother of Mrs. John Zack of Carmel, were held on May 3 in Saint Francis de Sales Church in Newark, Ohio. Mrs. Young, wife of the late William M. Young, died in Newark on April 30. She was born in Zanesville, Ohio, January 4, 1888.

In Newark to attend the services for Mrs. Young were Mrs. Zack and four other surviving children, Reverend William Young of Mingo Junction, Ohio; Philip B. Young and Mrs. Harry Morrison of Newark, Ohio; and Robert Young of Detroit, Michigan.

COUNCIL UPDATES BUILDING AND PLUMBING CODES

Before beginning preliminary 1965-66 budget study, the city council on Tuesday night adopted an ordinance updating Carmel's building and plumbing codes, authorized payment of $1,158 in lieu of 32 days excess accumulation of leave to William Askew, superintendent of the street and public works department, also heard a letter from the Carmel Presbyterian Church praising Mr. Askew for the work his department did on drainage and paving of Mountain View Avenue.

The council approved attendance, June 6-9, at the FBI annual retraining session in Newport Beach for Police Chief Clyde Klauermann.

They also approved a city-property owner cooperative street improvement project on Lincoln between First and Second. Cost $4,200 to the property owners.
